DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species I: claims 27-54 and 65.

Species II: claims 56, 60, 63, 64, 67-74, 103, and 104.

Species III: 75-83, 105, and 106.

Species IV: 84-91.

Species V: 93-102.

The species are independent or distinct because the "surface of the first layer has a dielectric function that varies spatially according to a pattern with an ideal lattice constant and a detuning parameter with a value greater than zero" of species I is not required for species II-V:

The "first layer comprises a semiconductor material and a surface of the first layer has a dielectric function that varies spatially according to a non-periodic pattern comprising a plurality of non-concentric holes, a majority of the non-periodic pattern having order; and wherein the light emerging from the light-emitting device via the surface of the first layer is substantially incoherent" of species II is not required for species I and III-V.

The "first layer comprises a semiconductor material and a surface of the first layer has a dielectric function that varies spatially according to a non-periodic pattern comprising holes being devoid of material within a perimeter defined by the first layer, a majority of the non-periodic pattern having order” of Species III is not required for Species I, II, IV, and V.

The “first layer comprises a semiconductor material and a surface of the first layer has a dielectric function that varies spatially according to a non-periodic pattern comprising a plurality of non-concentric holes; and wherein the non-periodic pattern is configured so that light emerging from the light-emitting device via the first surface is more collimated than a lambertian distribution of light” of species IV is not required for species I-III and V.

The “wherein the first layer comprises a semiconductor material and a surface of the first layer has a dielectric function that varies spatially according to a non-periodic pattern comprising features, a majority of the features having substantially the same size and a majority of the nearest neighbor distances between features being substantially the same” of species V is not required for species I-IV.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim appears generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 2879

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Joseph L. Williams whose telephone number is (571) 272-2465. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (6:30 AM-3:00 PM).
